Gigantic Campaign to Collect Salvage On in Lee County

6,000 School Children Will Comb Community for War Salvage

The most gigantic salvage campaign in Lee county's history was launched today in every school in Lee county and more than 6,000 pupils and students were furnished with certificates of patriotism, by The Dixon Evening Telegraph, sponsors of the drive. School children entered into the spirit of the campaign at once and last week, some of the students brought early contributions of scrap metals to their respective schools in an effort to be among the first to cooperate. Early indications point to the collection of several hundred tons of scrap metals from homes and farms throughout the county under this plan.

Every school child in the county is given the opportunity to assist Uncle Sam's fighting forces by collecting scrap metals in this campaign. John Torrens, county superintendent of schools, is in charge of the campaign in the county, and Principal B. J. Frazer of Dixon high school, is conducting the city drive.

Duplicate Certificates
The school children were today being urged to have their certificates of patriotism certified by a parent or guardian and then engage in the scrap metals collection. The certificates were issued in duplicate, one to be retained by the student and the other, after participation in the program, to be posted in the class room.

The first class rooms in the county reporting 100 per cent cooperation by the student body will receive special recognition. A Telegraph staff photographer will call at the school and take the picture of the class group, and the picture will later appear in this paper.

Three scrap metals depositories were established in Dixon today—the vacant lot on Hennepin avenue and Commercial alley, the One Stop service station on Peoria avenue and Chester Barriage's station on Ottawa avenue and East First street. At each of these stations scrap metals which are donated in the drive may be deposited. Among the schools, if the scrap is to be sold, it must be delivered to a junk yard, but if it is donated, it may be deposited at either of the above central collection stations in Dixon. Where scrap piles are established at schools throughout the county, collection may be arranged by calling Dale Rosenkrans at Paw Paw, Lee county chairman, or The Dixon Telegraph.

CALL LAST ROUND-UP

New York, Oct. 12.—(AP)—America, surging today into the final week of the 21-day metal scrap drive led by the nation's newspapers, set out today to add billions of pounds of the more than one billion pounds already collected before the final curtain falls next Sunday.

Householders, farmers and factory owners were called upon to make the last round-up of old iron and steel junk before the final whistle Oct. 17 in the campaign which began Sept. 28.

Some states had not even reported yet to the newspapers' united metal scrap drive committee whose chairman, Richard W. Loomis, said:

"Final standings may be quite

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

By DeWitt MacKenzie
Wide World War Analyst
London, Oct. 12.—The British censorship of news—which, to say the least, is one of the most liberal of the many under which I have worked in countries of both hemispheres—is based on the philosophy that the wartime morale of a nation is in direct ratio to the amount of information the public gets, especially from the battlefields.

Since this principle obviously is producing amazingly fine results in John Bull's domains, it encourages me to reiterate here the view I expressed not long before leaving New York on this trip.

It is this:
The way we Americans can get the real feel of the war, which up to now has been so far away from us, is to transport us through the press into the heat of battle. Let the home folk in spirit fight by the side of our boys and bleed with them and die with them. This may be achieved by reporting the news fully while it is not—not in filtered form a week or a month after the ashes are cold. I quickly discovered that this is one of the tenets of the British censorship when I turned for enlightenment to Minister of Information Brendan Bracken and later to the chief censor, Rear Admiral G. P. Thomson. Of course, one of the problems of Messrs. Bracken and Thomson is that the two are merely go-betweens for the armed services and the public.

That is to say, censorship of news relating to operations originates with the navy, army or air force. Now fighting chances are notoriously inclined to maintain silence. It thus becomes a matter of persuasion on the part of the ministry of information when one of the services gets sticky about giving up the news.

Here it may be said that the firm of Bracken and Thomson appears to be doing a grand job of publishing for the public. There is the most liberal interpretation of the rule excluding the publication of information which might aid the enemy. He is given full credit for having an intelligence service which keeps him well informed and the British public isn't made to wait unless it is obvious that circulation of news would do harm.

Bracken is one of the outstanding personalities in Britain. Since the ministry of information has a

Says Pending Suit Against AP Threat to Every Freedom

Publisher of Chicago Tribune in Address to Editors' Body

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Col. Robert R. McCormick declared today that the federal government's pending suit against the Associated Press "is intended to strip the press and the people of all of their rights and liberties and make the Supreme Court of the United States a reincarnation of the court of the Star Chamber of King Charles I."

The editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune, in an address prepared for delivery to the Advisory Council of the National Editorial Association, said that if a court could take jurisdiction over the AP it eventually could take jurisdiction over all news services, syndicates and individual newspapers.

"The ostensible prayer of the complaint," McCormick said of the government's action, "is that The Associated Press be compelled to take into membership and render service to any one who demands it."

"If this should be held to be the law, any brewery, any public utility, and undercover gambler, any one at all, for any reason at all, could come to your town, make a contract with a job printer, and use the service you have been building up for forty odd

President of Chile Cancels His Visit

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 12.—(AP)—President Juan Antonio Rios has postponed his intended visit to President Roosevelt in the second stroke of official Chilean displeasure to follow Thursday's speech in Boston by Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles.

Rios, in a message to Roosevelt announced last night, said that "the latest official information circulated in the United States about my country's international policy has created an unpleasant atmosphere."

The Chilean president was scheduled to arrive Oct. 21 in Brownsville, Tex., and to reach Washington the following day.

Without naming Argentina and Chile, the only two South Am-

Gypsies Celebrate Last Gathering for Duration With Wedding Sunday

Belleville, Ill., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Three hundred gypsies from every corner of the nation had a final fling yesterday before rationing, the nomad's nightmare, clamped down on their wanderings.

If they needed any excuse for their rendezvous in battered automobiles, the tribes had it in the wedding of 9-year-old Tom Johns of Arlington County, Va., and 11-year-old Katy Miller of Wisconsin.

The war cast its shadow, however, even around the flickering campfires of Romany. Frank Johns, textile worker father of the somewhat belligerent-looking bridegroom, commented unhappily:

"This is probably the last such gathering for us for the duration of the war. Those of us in good physical condition are either fighting or working in war plants. And gasoline . . . Well, it looks like our roving days are over for a while."

The Rev. Steve Miller of St. Louis performed the 20-minute wedding ceremony after the celebrants had spent hours in eating and drinking. Johns said the principals would live in his home as brother and sister until they reached an age allowing a civil ceremony.

But there was one thing not in line with tradition. No wailing violins aired the blood-heating tunes of gypsyland as dancing progressed on a nearby pavilion.

The gypsies had hired a St. Louis swing band!

Allies Moving on to Strength, Prime Minister Asserts

Churchill Pictures Hitler Growing Weak In Edinburgh Speech

Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill pictured the United States, Russia, China and Britain today as moving "steadily onward from strength to strength" while Hitler's "prospects have darkened to an immeasurable degree."

In a belligerent and confident speech accepting the freedom of the city, Churchill assured Edinburgh's citizens that "no weakness will be shown to the Germans" in the dispute over the chaining of war prisoners and reported:

1. August and September were "the least bad months since January" in allied shipping losses, and new building outweighs sinkings.

2. The same two months saw "the greatest tonnage of British bombs dropped upon Germany."

3. They also "marked the definite growth of allied air superiority."

And these months, too, he said, "have covered the most numerous safe arrivals of United States troops in the British isles."

Speaking in the presence of United States Ambassador John G. Winant, Churchill said "we have reached a stern and somber moment in the war" but asserted "the country is pulling together better now than ever before in its history."

Making his speech a reply to recent utterances by German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, Goering and Hitler, the prime minister asserted:

Whining Note of Fear
"There is one note which rings through all those speeches x x x a dull, low whining note of fear and a different note from that heard when Britain stood alone."

"The most striking and curious part of Hitler's speech was his complaint that no one pays sufficient attention to his victories," Churchill continued. "It strikes a chill into his marrow because in his heart he knows that with his tremendous victories and vast conquests his fortunes have declined."

"Fear," he added, "is also the motive which inspires Hitler's latest outrage."

Churchill said Norway, Denmark, Belgium and France "all are seething with the spirit of revolt and revolution" and that commando raids "inspire the author of so many crimes and miseries with a lively anxiety."

"In his fear and spite Hitler turns upon prisoners of war who are in his camps and in his power," Churchill asserted. "Just as he takes innocent hostages from his prisons in Norway, Belgium, Holland and France to shoot them in the hope of breaking the spirit of their countrymen, so in the flattest breach of the few conventions which still hold across the lines of the World war he vents his cruel fear and anger upon prisoners of war and casts them into chains."

Declaring that "tens of thousands have been murdered in cold blood" in Russia, Poland, and Yugoslavia, Churchill said the Germans "have executed at least 200 in eastern and central Europe for every one in the west."

At that point he gave his assurance of "no weakness" in British reprisals for chainings by the Germans of 1,376 British and Canadian prisoners taken in the Aug. 19 raid on Dieppe. The British countermeasures already have started with the shackling of German prisoners in Britain and Canada.

Another reason for Nazi maltreatment of prisoners, the prime minister said, was Hitler's wish to "divert men's eyes from evident failure so far—I always say so far—on his second, vast campaign against Russia."

Three Plead Guilty to Conspiracy to Defraud U. S. Government

Cleveland, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Three former officials of the Harsch Bronze & Foundry Co. pleaded guilty today to conspiracy to defraud the government by using rejected materials in the production of submarine engine and marine instrument parts.

Judge Emerich R. Freed delayed sentence until prosecutors prepare a report upon the effect of the defendants' fraud upon war production.

The confessed conspirators are Harry Harsch, 45, former vice-president and secretary; Alfred H. Huck, 28, former production manager; and Walter E. Cowie, 27, Huck's assistant.

Maximum penalty is two years' imprisonment, $10,000 fine, or both.

Increase in Levy for Security May Be Next Proposal

Washington, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The treasury may recommend increases in social security payroll levies, linked with a stiff spending tax, in a new financing program to be submitted to congress after action is completed on the pending revenue bill.

The house sent the new tax measure, described by Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee as "a very notable contribution to the tax system," to conference for compromise of the differences between the house and senate.

Speaker Rayburn appointed Representatives Doughton (D-NC), Cooper (D-Tenn), Disney (D-Okl), Boehne (D-Ind), Treadway (R-Mass), Knutson (R-Minn) and Reed (R-NY), as house members to meet tomorrow with seven senators on the conference committee.

George expressed hope this committee might finish its work within a week and congress already had notice from Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau that he would be back on Capitol Hill with a request for an additional $6,000,000,000 in taxes as soon as the present measure was signed by the president.

Sees Rough Going
While Morgenthau has not said what form he expects these levies to take, Senator Byrd (D-Va.) said he looked for revival of a spending tax proposal, once rejected by the senate committee.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) expressed belief the treasury might attempt to combine such a tax with a proposed increase in social security levies in a new war financing program.

This prospect brought a declaration from Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) that the treasury would find rough going if it made any attempt to finance war expenditures by increasing social security taxes above their present level of 1 per cent each on employers and employees.

Vandenberg led a successful fight for senate adoption last week of an amendment freezing these levies at the present rate for 1943, despite an appeal by President Roosevelt that they be permitted to increase to a total of 4 per cent Jan. 1, as congress originally had contemplated.

Local Officers Hear Fugitives Are Seen in Dixon Community

With reports and rumors contending that the notorious hoodlums who made a spectacular escape from the Stateville penitentiary being received from several points throughout the middle west, this section was not overlooked. Sunday state police and Ogle county sheriff's forces were called to the White Pines state park where an individual described as answering the description of Basil Banghart was reported to have been seen.

Sheriff Jim White broadcast the alarm and Dixon police were on guard watching roads entering the city but without result. Arthur Johnson, 2100 Third street, a truck driver at the Green River ordinance plant, reported to the local police that while hauling gravel from the pits south of Green river Saturday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock, he observed a green four door sedan in which four or five men were riding, speed west over a rough cross road a few miles south of the defense area. According to Johnson's report the car was traveling between 60 and 70 miles an hour.

3 Killed, Two Injured in Auto-Truck Collision
Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Three persons were killed and two others injured in an auto-truck collision on state route 29, 20 miles south of here yesterday.

The dead were Donald Atkins, 24, his son, Varrell, 5, and Charles Luthie, 21. Mrs. Donald Atkins and Miss Acie Watt, 27, were injured. All were from Greenup, Ill.

The truck driver, Ella Daniels, 34, St. Louis, was uninjured.

Germans Forced to Halt Mass Assaults on Strategic City

Russians Report Capture Advantageous Posts in Stalingrad

BY CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH
Associated Press War Editor

At the end of seven weeks of terrific attack and epic defense, the indomitable defenders of Stalingrad have forced the Germans to halt mass troop assaults on that ruined but strategically valuable city.

With signs of a great defensive victory emerging, the Russians themselves reported capture of "advantageous positions" in their flanking action northwest of Stalingrad—to the further peril of the immobile Germans—as well as gains by counter-attack in the Mzodok area of the Caucasus.

With a mixture of belligerence and confidence in the future, Prime Minister Churchill told an Edinburgh audience today that Russia, China, the United States and Britain were moving "steadily onward from strength to strength" while Hitler's "prospects have darkened to an immeasurable degree."

Churchill pictured August and September as months of great strategic developments in the allies' favor:

1. They were "the least bad months" of the year for allied shipping losses, he said, and new construction outweighs the German U-boat successes.

2. They "marked the definite growth of allied air superiority" with the RAF dropping its "greatest tonnage" of bombs on Germany.

3. They brought "the most numerous safe arrivals of U. S. troops in the British isles."

For the third day the Germans and their puppets were largely confined to artillery and air assaults on Stalingrad. The Russian communiqué said artillery and mortar duelling continued in the immediate Stalingrad area.

For the first time in weeks the Stalingrad battle took a secondary place in the Russian com-

Medusa Co. Giving 100 Tons of Scrap

The Medusa Cement Co. plant east of Dixon promises to lead all other industrial units in the Dixon territory in the scrap metal drive now under way. Chairman Walter Knack of the industrial division today estimated that the Medusa company alone would contribute no less than 100 tons of high grade scrap metals from the plant.

Included in the list of equipment being dismantled and reduction to the required lengths for the rolling mills, is a 25 ton drilling machine which was on exhibition in the machinery hall at the Columbian exposition in Chicago in 1892-93. At that time this piece of equipment was one of the mechanical marvels of that age, but for some time it had been unused at the Dixon plant, having been replaced by equipment of a more modern type.

In order to dismantle and burn the big machine into the required lengths, it was necessary to open a road in the quarry, where acetylene torches went to work cutting up the sections.

Another piece of equipment, weighing 60 tons, is today being dismantled and will be junked. It is a 60-ton drag line shovel, which has been replaced by the most modern electric shovel, and is being dismantled by a crew of workers of the force and is to be shipped to the steel mills to become essential war equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boze Express Pride in Their New Son-in-Law

New Rochelle, N. Y., Oct. 12.—(AP)—"Cheer up, pa. This isn't a burying—it's a wedding."

"What do you mean, cheer up? I'm not sad. I know Tommy'll take care of her all right. It's just that it's kind of hard to give her up."

Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Boze, of Andrews, S. C., were sitting yesterday on the sunporch of quite the fanciest house they'd ever seen. They were discussing their daughter's marriage, which was about to take place.

"Yes," Mr. Boze went on, "I felt bad about it at first, but I

Donations

Pittsburgh, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Nearly 200 Pittsburgh policemen have donated their personally-owned handcuffs to the government for "probable use in shackling axis prisoners." Police Superintendent Harvey J. Scott disclosed.

Scott visited precinct stations, asking for the donations, after receiving what he described as an "urgent request" for the handcuffs from the quartermaster's office in Washington. He said an Army officer told him the handcuffs would be used on axis prisoners "but did not specifically say German war prisoners in Canada."

Britain and Canada have started shackling 1,376 German war prisoners in retaliation for the fettering of the same number of empire prisoners in German prison camps.

Fireside Chat at White House Will Last 30 Minutes

Washington, Oct. 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, terming the war a conflict to determine "whether the march of progress shall proceed or be halted by the totality of conquest," declared today that a United Nations victory will be "a victory for oppressed and enslaved people everywhere."

"Our cause is not only liberty for ourselves but liberation for others," he said in a Columbus day statement.

Tonight, at 9 o'clock (Central War Time) the president will broadcast a report to the nation, and the White House said his talk would have "domestic as well as international interest."

The White House indicated that the chat would touch the issues of a second front and the drafting of young men of 18 and 19 for the armed forces.

Has One Conference
Roosevelt gave over most of the day to finishing the address, scheduling only one conference.

Significantly, that was with Paul V. McNutt, in charge of war manpower mobilization, and with Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early indicated that the problem of manpower would be covered in the address, along with selective service.

Asked about the drafting of 18- and 19-year olds, he replied: "I think you'll find that in there."

To an inquiry whether the speech would touch on European problems and a second front, Early answered:

"I think you'll construe what he says as applying to a second front."

The president will speak 30 minutes, starting at 9 p. m., Central War Time.

Big Hog Run Causes Sharp Price Decline

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A big run of hogs at the nation's livestock markets today, which livestock experts said foreshadowed the record breaking supply to be marketed this fall and winter, caused a sharp price break that shaved millions of dollars from the value of droves now on farms.

Prices in Chicago fell 30 to 40 cents per hundredweight and in some cases as much as 50 cents as the market retreated from the 22-year highs of last week. Top tumbled to $15.35 per hundredweight, compared with last week's peak of $15.75, highest posted in the market here since 1920.

Willkie Arrives in Fairbanks, Alaska

Fairbanks, Alaska, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Wendell Willkie and his party arrived at Fairbanks at 5 p. m., yesterday, by plane from China via Siberia. He said he would arrive in the United States in a few days and that all members on the flight were in the best of health.

Motorist Reports Being Threatened by Illinois Thugs

Paw Paw, Mich., Oct. 12.—(AP)—State police and sheriff's officers clamped a road blockade on south-western Michigan following a motorist's report the desperado, Roger Touhy, and four or five companions in a car threatened him with a tommy gun near here at 5 a. m. today.

The informant, Erving White, 35, Paw Paw creamery operator, said no shots were fired but that an occupant of the car silently aimed the weapon at him as he drove from a side-road and his headlights shone on the desperado's car, which evidently was having motor trouble.

White said he was "positive" one of the men was Touhy, and that the convicted kidnaper, a fugitive six other men from the Stateville, Ill., state penitentiary, carried a hoisted pistol at his hip.

Officers at the Paw Paw state police post first said the information looked like "a very hot tip" but when the blockade brought no trace of the automobile by noon police expressed belief that White may have mistaken a party of hunters for the fugitives.

The blockade was maintained, however, and the hunt continued.

White said he could not distinguish the serial numbers on the car's Illinois license plates, but that after it sped away he followed for about two miles and informed state police the car had headed into US-12 in the direction of Benton Harbor.

Priest Threatened
Earlier, a telephoned threat to a Catholic priest had turned Illinois state police to Indiana in their hunt for Touhy and his gang.

Monsignor Thomas Conroy of the Fort Wayne, Ind., cathedral told Chicago police yesterday that a lisp man, who identified himself as one of the Touhy gang, had called him on the telephone and said "We'll get you today or tonight."

A guard was detailed to the Indiana priest's home while in Chicago police watched the former haunts of the "Terrible Touhy mob."

Officials in the state's attorney's office said Magr. Conroy was instrumental in dissuading an Indianapolis priest from appearing as a defense witness in Roger Touhy's second trial for the 1933 kidnaping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor.

Escape Car Found
Twice, after their break from prison Friday, Touhy and his prison mates slipped through state police road blockades, their abandoned car, stolen outside the prison grounds, was found near Villa Park, Ill., its engine still warm, Saturday. A gas station attendant told police four men who got out of the car and into another waiting machine headed toward Chicago.

One of the convicts on the loose was Basil "The Owl" Banghart, tommy-gunner for the notorious Touhy organization.

Banghart's woman friend, Mae Blalock, is being sought, Capt. Daniel Gilbert, chief investigator for the Cook county (Chicago) state's attorney's office, said last night.

GREEN PLEDGES PROBE
Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—A public assurance by Governor Green that an "exhaustive and impartial" investigation is being made into the Touhy prison break was followed today by a renewed demand from Rep. William Vickers, house Democratic leader that the governor name a committee of prominent citizens to conduct the inquiry.

Vickers criticized Governor Green's appointment of Warden E. M. Stubbfield and Director T. P. Sullivan of the state department of public safety to supervise the investigation. The prison system is part of the public safety department.

Answering a statement by Vickers and several other Democratic legislators urging that he appoint a non-partisan committee to probe the escape of Roger Touhy and six others from Stateville prison last Friday, Governor Green called the proposal "politically inspired."

"Allow me first of all to assure the people of Illinois that the state administration will not divest itself of any responsibility in this matter by emulating the titular head of the Kelly-Nash machine and appoint a committee to 'whitewash' anyone connected with state government who may share in the blame" the governor's statement said in part.

Governor at Prison
"I have personally visited the prison and have satisfied myself that a most thorough and impartial investigation is being made

Indiana Priest Guarded After Receiving Telephoned Warning

Paw Paw, Mich., Oct. 12.—(AP)—State police and sheriff's officers clamped a road blockade on southwestern Michigan following a motorist's report the desperado, Roger Touhy, and four or five companions in a car threatened him with a tommy gun near here at 5 a. m. today.

Sleeping Car 'Pool' Allowed Pullman to Handle War Traffic

Has Carried 4,400,000 Service Men Since Pearl Harbor

New York (Wide World)—There's a story behind the Pullman Company's claim that in the first eight months after Pearl Harbor it carried in its sleepers 4,400,000 soldiers, sailors and marines exclusive of men on furlough or en route to induction center.

The company explains it was able to step into the complicated war job on a moment's notice—or right after the Japanese struck last December—through its pool of sleeping cars.

For example: Say the Army had decided to move 3,800 men from X field in Alabama to Y field in Texas. On the basis of 38 men to a car—two to a lower berth, one to an upper—that would mean 100 cars. Perhaps on 48 or 24 hour notice they would have to be at X field.

The order is phoned, teletyped or telegraphed from the war department to the headquarters of the American Association of Railroad in Washington and from there to the civilian-manned western military bureau and finally to the car servicing department of the Pullman Company in Chicago.

There two men—B. F. Dewey, superintendent of car service, and his assistant, Bruce Hamilton—know or can quickly find out where any of the company's 7,000 cars are although they are in a constant state of movement.

Adjoining the office of Dewey and Hamilton is that of specialists for the individual railroad lines. Each specialist is in constant touch with car specialists in the district office of the Pullman Company located on the various lines of their particular railroad.

Their constant communications to Chicago supply Dewey and his staff at all times with a picture of the car demand and supply for the entire country.

When the Army's order arrives at Dewey's office, telephone and telegraph lines begin to hum.

If necessary cars are obtained from yards on other routes. They are rushed to X field either by "deadhead" movement on a scheduled passenger train or by fast freight.

Pending in Federal court against Pullman, Inc.—the parent company—is a government anti-trust suit charging the corporation and its subsidiaries have exercised a monopoly on the sleeping car service and restrained trade in the manufacture of railway cars.

(The Pullman outfit is not the only firm making sleepers.)

Pullman, Inc., is made up of the Pullman Company which operates the sleepers, and the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing Company, which makes them. The sleepers are bought by the Pullman Company from the manufacturing subsidiary which also makes and sells passenger and freight cars, trolley and subway cars.

The individual railroads do not own the Pullman cars which travel on their roads but obtain them for use on a basis worked out between the Pullman Company and the railroads.

The Pullman Company explains that the railroads are able to obtain in normal times all the Pullman cars they need from the company's "pool" without the expense of having these cars on their lines as individual investments in slack periods.

The net income of Pullman, Inc., for the first six months of 1942 was $9,376,922, compared with $5,681,485 in the same period of 1941, and $6,611,201 for the first six months of 1937, a non-war year.

This year's increase, of course, was not the reflection of increased Pullman car use alone for the corporation has large war contracts—it reported sales for the first half of this year approximately topping the record sales for all of 1941—and is making tanks, howitzer carriages and other war equipment.

State Treasurer Says State Balances Are Up

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Increased state revenues "in the main, can be traced directly to the national war effort in the past year" State Treasurer Warren Wright said in his 21st monthly accounting of his department over radio station WLS yesterday.

He said the total net balance of all state funds had increased $106,000,000, or almost $9,000,000 a month.

Tribute to Mother Mary Jones Paid

Mt. Olive, Ill., Oct. 12.—Tribute to the memory of "Mother" Mary Jones, nationally known labor leader, was paid today by Lieut. Gov. Hugh W. Cross at annual Virden day services here.

"It is a far cry from the dismal, despairing days of Mother Jones down to the present period of more humane labor relations in the coal mining industry," Cross said.

William Keck, president of the Progressive Mine Workers of America; Lloyd Thrush, vice-president, and Joe Ozanic, American Federation of Labor organizer, were other scheduled speakers on the program, the 44th annual observance sponsored by the PMWA.

Illinois Marines Describe Leaving Mighty 'Yorktown'

Arrive on West Coast to Spend Furloughs With Home Folks

San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Five youthful Illinoisans, members of the U. S. Marine Corps assigned to anti-aircraft guns on the sunken airplane carrier U. S. S. Yorktown, told Friday their stories of the mighty "Y's" last battle at Midway.

The youths landed here with other members of the Marine contingent and all were given 30 day furloughs to spend at home before getting another assignment.

Pfc. John C. German of East Peoria told of watching the bomb fall that gave the Yorktown its crippling blow.

"I was the wheelman who controls the elevation of a 2 mm. anti-air craft gun," Pvt. German said in an interview. "Our gun was just forward of a stack. We could see the huge bomb shooting toward the ship. It sailed right into the funnel, exploding several decks below."

Pvt. A. Tremulis, son of Milton Tremulis, Rockford florist, said that "except for unloading some ammunition from a smoke filled room next to a compartment that had been struck by a bomb," it was all routine.

"Not a single one of those planes that ever dived on the Yorktown got away," he said, "and not a one of 95 Marines was killed."

Song Breaks Strain

Tremulis said that after the battle of the Coral Sea, the atmosphere was tense until a corporal started singing "Why Don't We Do This More Often?"

"We were back to normal in two seconds," he said.

Three other Leathernecks recalled the dramatic moment when Captain Elliott Buckmaster, Marine commander, ordered them to abandon ship.

Pfc. Marlin Smith, son of Floyd Smith, Abingdon, but who claims Table Grove as home, said:

"I'll never forget that order because it was so dramatic. The ship was listing heavily, but we Marines were standing by waiting for the Japs to come back so we could have another crack at them.

"Suddenly, we heard some one calling us from the upper deck. It was Capt. Elliott Buckmaster and he was ordering us to leave the ship. 'Thank you Marines,' he said, 'for the magnificent fight you made, but you must abandon the ship now. We did our best—may God be with you all'."

Cpl. Floyd C. Williams of Hazel Crest and Pfc. George Kastner, also recalled the order. They described the manner of leaving the Yorktown:

"So we took off our shoes, laid them neatly side by side on the quarterdeck, picked out a destroyer to swim to, shook hands, wishing each other luck, and then went over the side," they said.

Kastner said: "Remember that Jap pilot that got through our barrage, and as he flew over us thumbed his nose? Well, when we got through with him, all that was left was a motor and a pair of wings. We filled him so full of holes he broke in two."

Government Operation Causes Waste—McNear

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The Toledo, Peoria and Western railroad, in its annual report for 1941 issued yesterday, said that federal rules for operation "involved wastes and delays of all kinds."

The road has been operated by the federal government for the last six and a half months.

"We hope," President George P. McNear, Jr., wrote in the 32-page preamble to the report, "our government will stop the needless wastes on our railroad, either by taking the necessary action itself, or allowing us to do so. Manpower should not be wasted merely to enrich labor unions."

The T. P. and W., a 239-mile freight line running from Effner, Ind., to Keokuk, Ia., and providing an important trans-continental by-pass around Chicago, was taken over by the Office of Defense Transportation after protracted labor troubles, climaxed by a long-unsettled strike.

—There is a world of scrap iron to be had from our farmers. Much old and discarded machinery that any farmer should be pleased to get rid of.

Death Cuts Short by 34 Years Life Span of Zion Head

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Death cut short by 34 years the 106-year-life span Wilbur Glenn Voliva, colorful religious cult leader of Zion, Ill., once predicted he would complete and thereby survive his off-prognosticated world end.

The self-styled prophet, who persistently preached from his Shiloh temple that the world was flat, died after a short illness in Billings hospital last night at the age of 72. He said he would live until 1976.

He made that prediction in 1931, but he never explained how he would survive the end of the world, which most recently he set for 1943.

Although he confined his activity principally to the church colony village of Zion, a community of 6,000 north of Chicago, his fame spread over the nation through his many predictions of the end of the world, made to the exact day for various years.

Of his prediction that the world would end in 1943, Voliva said in 1934 that the period from 1914 to 1942-43, designated in the Bible as the "time of the end," would reach a world climax in 1935-36 in world revolution and chaos. Out of that, he said, would "come the superman, the world-dictator, whose administration of world affairs will continue for approximately seven years, ending with the battle of Armageddon, which battle will never be fought, as it will be halted by the second stage of Christ's coming; namely his coming in glory to destroy all gentile nations and to inaugurate his millennial rule."

A year later, however, he predicted the battle of Armageddon actually would take place—a battle "so bloody that it will require seven months to bury the slain."

Dear Mom!

THEY GIVE SO MUCH -- AND THEY ASK SO LITTLE

Our men in the armed forces, as this letter proves, ask so little but are willing to give so much. The least we can do is support our Army and Navy with all our resources. THIS TIME IT IS SCRAP. They will not have the necessary guns, airplanes, ships and other fighting tools unless sufficient metal is salvaged from the scrap piles in Lee County.

STUDENTS OF LEE COUNTY, it's your job. Gather every pound of material on your home premises during this "Scrap for Victory" drive. Get your CERTIFICATE OF PATRIOTISM now, and let our boys in the armed service know we are behind them with everything we have.

Your teacher has your CERTIFICATE OF PATRIOTISM. Secure it from her today and return it for her signature as soon as you have gathered and contributed all available salvage material on your home premises.

DIXON EVENING TELEGRAPH

The following is an excerpt from a letter recently received by a mother of a boy who is a member of the Air Service in training near San Antonio, Texas. The writer formerly worked and lived in Dixon.

Dear Mom:

. . . Right now I'm sitting on the second floor porch watching the first 2 wing stand retreat and parade (we are in the 3rd wing so we do not stand tonight). It's really a beautiful sight to watch. The men march to the large drill field from all the different sections of the post and form in their respective wings, groups and squadrons.

After all of the rows are perfectly straight they continue to the middle of the field where they again "right dress" (straighten the lines). Then the band comes out of position, marches the entire length of the field and back, playing martial music. The officers march to the center and are given orders. Then the cannon is fired and the flag starts to come down. . . . This part is called "retreat." Now comes the order to "pass in review" and the entire parade ground becomes alive with men as they pass by the reviewing stand in squadrons, and then off the field.

Now you may ask, "Well, what makes it so wonderful?" I'll tell you. First you must realize that the entire ceremony takes about 1 hour and during this time, the men are standing rigidly at attention with the sun shining and beautiful clouds overhead. During that hour you have a lot to think about—most of us are wondering why we are here. The playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" answers that for us. There's a certain feeling that comes up inside of a person when they play our national anthem, and we unconsciously realize that our purpose is to preserve just the thing that this song is written about—LIBERTY.

You'd be surprised at the number of fellows who will admit that at some time or other tears have come to their eyes while standing parade and retreat. Understand, they aren't tears of fear for the future, but tears from the welled up feeling inside—the feeling that you're going to do or die for your country and not because you're ordered to, but rather because you want to—because it's your duty.

I've told you all this for one purpose and that is to impress upon you that the men of today's army are not griping and that by far the largest percentage of them have tender feelings inside regarding their country and their duty. . . .

With love,

LE

E. E. WINGERTS RECEIVE MORE THAN ONE-HUNDRED GUESTS IN HONOR OF GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mellow October sunshine out of doors and handclaps of congratulation from a reception line indoors contributed toward making an unforgettable occasion of the celebration planned for Sunday, in recognition of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wingert of 302 East Boyd street, whose golden wedding anniversary occurs today. The well-known Dixon couple received informally at an open house reception from 3 to 6 p. m., with between 100 and 125 relatives and friends stopping in to extend well wishes between those hours.

Rooms of the Wingerts' north shore home were fragrant with masses of autumn flowers, with yellow roses predominating among the anniversary gifts. The crystal bowl, that held golden chrysanthemums at the refreshment table, was a wedding gift for the Wingerts at the time of their marriage on Columbus Day, Oct. 12, 1892, in Chicago. The gold pen for signing the guest book belonged to Ira Lewis, who served as circuit clerk for many years.

Mrs. E. N. Howell and Mrs. H. U. Bardwell presided at the tea table during the first hour. Miss Fannie Murphy and Mrs. Ben B. Billinger poured next, and were followed by Mrs. S. W. Lehman and Miss Jean Hitchcock. Mrs. R. M. Ferguson, Miss Kathryn Wright, and Miss Clara Armstrong assisted in the dining room. Preceding the reception, a family dinner was served at Lowell park lodge. Twenty relatives attended.

Mrs. Wingert, formerly Miss Bessie E. Boardman, was born in Dixon, a daughter of Thaddeus D. and Jane (Richards) Boardman. Her mother came to this vicinity from Toronto in 1836 as a small child, and her father came from New York a year later.

Mrs. Wingert's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, were the ninth family to settle in Dixon. Upon their arrival, there were less than a dozen buildings in the entire village.

Mr. Wingert, who has been practicing law since 1889, was born at Franklin Grove. His mother, Mary C. Emmert, came from Maryland in 1844, and his father, Walter J. Wingert, reached Lee county from Ohio in 1852.

He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1889, and was admitted to the bar in that state. He formerly taught Latin and Greek in the old Dixon college, and was law instructor for three years in the Dixon College of law. He also served as city attorney for 13 years, acted as attorney for several villages, drainage districts, community school districts, fire protection districts, served for two years as a member of the board of directors for the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, was United States conciliation commissioner for two years, and was honored as senior counselor of the Illinois Bar association.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wingert have been active in the Methodist church most of their lives (she has attended the church since she was eight years old), and have also served in many civic and club groups, including the Lee County Historical society, and Foreign Travel club.

All of the couple's four children were with them yesterday, including Mrs. John Earle of New York City, Mrs. Stanwood J. Griffith of Ashton, Miss Constance Wingert, New York artist, and Edward Boardman Wingert of this city. The three grandchildren, Jane Boardman Wingert, Jack Boardman Wingert, and Stanwood C. Griffith, were also present.

Relatives attending the celebration from out of town were Col. John E. Earle of Charleston, S. C., Mrs. John E. Earle of New York City, Miss Constance Wingert of New York, Miss Mary L. Richards, Mrs. R. H. Eichstaedt and daughters Gertrude and Helen, Moline; Judge and Mrs. Alva F. Wingert of Mount Carroll; J. C. Griffith,

Mr. and Mrs. Andrus O. Griffith and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Charters, and the Stanwood J. Griffiths of Ashton, Miss Edna Newcomer, Oregon; Mrs. Flora Phillips, Sterling; Mrs. Stelzer Durkes and Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Durkes, Miss Clara Lahman, Mrs. Carrie Crawford, Mrs. Sarah Emmert, Mrs. Mary Emmert, Mrs. Olive Spangler, Mrs. Carl Spangler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emmert, Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Garrison, Mrs. Charles Coleman and Miss Dorothy Durkes of Franklin Grove and vicinity.

At the beginning of a year which promises a wealth of entertainment and study in addition to wartime service for the Dixon Woman's club, the members met at the Loveland Community House on Saturday for a picnic luncheon, and hobby fair, followed by an illustrated lecture, "Gardens for Morale", by Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen. Luncheon covers were arranged for about 100 members at tables colorfully appointed in the autumn motif.

Mrs. A. C. Bowers and members of her American home and garden committee planned the hobby fair, at which various members exhibited handiwork and collections. For instance, Mrs. Vernon Mays, Mrs. L. C. Street, Miss Jane Franks and Mrs. LeRoy Buhler displayed rugs, quilts, were exhibited by Mrs. E. G. Hubert, Mrs. Fred Brauer, Mrs. J. R. McDaniel, Mrs. Street, and Mrs. Bowers.

Germans Forced to

muniqué—the Germans had been playing it down for days. The Russian communiqué took a broad approach by reporting continuous action on the whole Russian-German front.

Recapture Positions

In the Caucasus the Germans still were striving to take the valuable Grozny oil fields south-east of Moxdok, but the Russians reported a counterstroke with which they disrupted the German offensive and recaptured defense positions.

The Russians were reported advancing also in the zone southeast of Novorossisk, Black Sea port which the Germans now hold, storming a town house-by-house after the German garrison was surrounded.

REDS LASH OUT

Moscow, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Red army lashed out at the Germans and gained ground northwest of Stalingrad and in the Caucasus today as, for the third day, the bloody and destructive German assault within the city was confined to artillery and mortar attacks, the soviet communiqué said.

After throwing thousands of Nazi troops to their death in a furious seven-week effort to take the city, the German high command has abandoned, at least temporarily, the costly plan of storming the city in favor of artillery and air assaults, dispatches indicated.

With the pressure off in Stalingrad, Red army detachments attacked in the battle area northwest of the city between the Volga and the Don and captured "advantageous positions", the mid-day communiqué said.

In the immediate Stalingrad area, the communiqué said, "artillery and mortar duels continued". Russian mortar crews were reported to have disabled seven German tanks and dispersed Nazi infantry concentrations. It was acknowledged that the Germans attacked on the outskirts of a workers' settlement in this area, but the attack was reported repulsed and two companies of Germans wiped out.

It was the first time in weeks that the name of Stalingrad did not appear in the first paragraph of the soviet communiqué.

Nazis Transfer Attack
Some of the force of the German attack was transferred to the Moxdok area of the Caucasus where the invaders have been trying to drive to the Grozny oil fields. But the Russians struck back and recaptured defense positions from which they had withdrawn earlier, the mid-way communiqué said.

Soviet troops were reported advancing too in the fighting zone southeast of Novorossisk, the Black sea port now in German hands. The Russians were fighting a street-to-street battle in a town in that area, "clearing it of Hitlerites house by house", the communiqué said.

American-made jeeps were being used to take anti-aircraft guns to the front in the Caucasus to bolster the Red army defenses, dispatches reported.

Pravda said an enemy offensive in the Moxdok region had been disrupted when the Russians seized the initiative and consolidated new positions.

New German reserves were reported moving up to the rim of Stalingrad and the future of the fighting was still uncertain.

The frontal assaults on Stalingrad ended, Russian dispatches said, after the German high command had sent between 50,000 and 75,000 men into a final effort to crush Russian resistance.

The Russians reported that on the northwest front, a Red army counterattack threw the Germans back and killed 700 men.

Five German transports totaling 16,000 tons were announced sunk in the Baltic sea.

Berlin (From German Broadcasts) Oct. 12—(AP)—"In Stalingrad an enemy group was annihilated", the high command said today.

This single sentence was the Berlin high command's only reference to fighting in the siege-resisting Volga city which the Germans have skipped over lightly in their war reports for three successive days, apparently with little to their advantage to report.

Of the Caucasus front, the war bulletin reported:

"An enemy group encircled along the road to Tuapse has been destroyed. Here the bulk of a crack soviet division and parts of a soviet rifle division have been wiped out, over 400 enemy positions have been taken, and a number of prisoners and arms captured."

The newest developments in the western air war included yesterday's daylight forays by the British against targets in northern Germany, principally Hanover, and in occupied France. It was the 43rd attack on Hanover, a railway and industrial center of about a half-million population.

A small number of German raiders made their first night attack on Britain since Sept. 26 when they bombed scattered localities on the northeast coast last night, causing some casualties and damage.

The war in North Africa remained essentially a race between the axis and the United Nations to build up the striking force and reservoir of supplies necessary for an offensive step. Designed to disrupt the axis preparations, the allied air offensive continued.

The next battle of North Africa promises to be a crucial test of the respective merits of American and German arms. Moreover, it had become apparent to correspondents in Egypt that Marshal Rommel will find more representatives of the United Nations arrayed against the axis than ever before.

As for the present land action, the British reported only patrol activities and axis reports agreed. There was an increase yesterday in air activity over Malta, the enemy carrying out five heavily escorted bomber raids, but defenders of the British Mediterranean island destroyed at least 15 of the attackers and damaged many more as against the loss of one fighter.

On Sunday United States heavy bombers struck two freighters of about 8,000 tons, escorted by three destroyers off the coast of the occupied Greek island of Crete. They also shot down three axis planes.

years, to run you out of business.

"That such is the object of this bill, I should think a court would take judicial notice of, but this is only part of the evil and the lesser part. If a court takes jurisdiction of this case and issues such an injunction, there is no limit to the authority it will have usurped. If a court can force us to take a member in, it can force us to expel a member."

Refers to Complaints
Referring to members' complaints over assessments for costs of AP service, McCormick said that if the suit was successful any member could sue and the regulation of rates would fall into the hands of public authorities, he added.

"As you know, some of the services of the Associated Press are optional to members and others they are required to pay for whether they use them or not. We pay for some services we do not use. If this suit could stand, a member could file a bill in court demanding that such services be rendered and such services be discontinued."

The colonel said the government's complaint embodied the allegation that newspapers and press associations "are affected with the public interest. This weasel phrase", he continued, "appears to mean one thing, but what it really means is that they are public utilities subject to regulation by the state which, of course, is a complete contradiction of the first amendment."

Position of Press
Discussing the position of the press, McCormick declared:

"It is a terrible thing to say, but it is a fact that only in the United States of America can publishers meet and take steps to protect their rights, for nowhere else in the world have publishers any rights."

"I am referring to the fact that only in the United States does their exist a constitutional guarantee of rights of men and set up courts to protect them; nor am I referring to such freedom as men possessed in the British commonwealth of nations until a few years ago; nor discussing whether the rights of parliament enlarged or abridged the rights of men under the common law."

"I am stating the appalling fact that today in the British commonwealth, as well as everywhere else in the world, press is being taken without compensation, men are incarcerated without trial. The press is not only under censorship but is directed what it must say. In particular, in adjoining Canada, the press is constrained to interfere in American politics."

"Evil news is this, but worse is yet to come, namely that a movement has been started to enslave the American press and that in the very tribunal created to protect it under the first and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States."

2 Mississippi Negro Boys Found Lynched
Shubuta, Miss., Oct. 12—(AP)—The bodies of two 14-year-old Negro boys were found today swinging from a railroad bridge under which they attacked a 13-year-old white girl last week.

Sheriff Lloyd McNeal of Clarke county, investigating reports of the absence of the youths from the Quitman jail where they were held, found the bodies of Charlie Lang and Ernest Green.

They had been arrested last Tuesday and pleaded guilty to attempted rape of the girl, who was waylaid on her way home from school.

The sheriff said a mob of unidentified men overpowered the jailer Sunday, locked him in a cell and proceeded with the lynching.

Judge Grover Gehant was initiated into the "Order of Rock River Pike Fishermen" Sunday morning, when he flipped a minnow into the stream, near the hydro plant, and pulled out a three-pound wall-eye. The "big one" was landed only after an exciting struggle, during which the judge received sufficient advice and assistance for bringing a boat load of fish to gaff.

Restocking in Rock—

The fall restocking program in Rock river at Dixon was quite active last week. In addition to several thousand small blue gills and big mouth black bass, which were transported from the Rockford state hatchery, Conservation Inspector Stoddard Danekas of Reynolds township went to Erie last week and obtained several cans of half grown fish which had been rescued from ponds which were drying up. These were hauled to Dixon and released below the dam and consisted of crappies, cat fish and wall-eyed pike.

different when missing states are heard from."

Slocum pointed out that because all states had not yet reported, the present tabulations and standings—which placed Kansas, Utah and Oregon first on average pounds collected for every man, woman and child in the respective states—might be misleading.

Perhaps one of the most realistic attitudes in the drive was expressed at Chicago where collections had picked up but WPB regional Salvage Director John Nuveen, Jr., said:

"For the first time this fall every big scrap yard and steel mill in this area reports increased inventories. Scrap now is moving from many sources to dealer yards at a rate of 4,000 tons daily, the best movement recorded since the drive got under way."

"All steel mills reported an increase in scrap inventories as of Oct. 9 over the previous week-end. However, our goal is to build up a three months' reserve supply before winter sets in and transportation facilities are slowed down."

WARSHIP DOOMED

Portland, Ore., Oct. 12—(AP)—Portland planned a fitting farewell salute today for the historic old battleship Oregon, pride of the fleet in the Spanish-American war, now doomed to the scrap pile.

A war emergency, as urgent as any in the Oregon's fighting days, forced the navy to order the ship broken up and the metal used to ease the scrap shortage.

A helpless hull today, the famed old dreadnaught is in river anchorage here, only a shell of the fighting machine that dashed around South America to Santiago, Cuba, in 1898 to help bottle up the Spanish fleet.

She was retired years ago, her drive shafts severed and her guns plugged, as the result of a disarmament pact. Navy officials considered scrapping her then, but, out of sentiment for her record, Franklin D. Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the navy, managed to get her loaned to Oregon.

The Oregon is expected to yield 10,288 tons of metal.

President Roosevelt agreed to the scrapping only after stipulating that the U. S. Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship at the battle of Manila, be preserved as the last naval relic of the Spanish-American war. The Olympia now is at Philadelphia.

TO NAME SHIPS

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—Champion salvagers among the nation's school children will name and christen 49 Liberty ships.

The Office of Education and the War Production Board authorized today contests in all the schools to pick names to be put on the ships. Each state will submit three names of deceased outstanding citizens of their state, and a ship will be named for one of these citizens from each state and the District of Columbia.

Children from the three leading salvage collection schools of each state will get free trips to christen the ships. The schools will be chosen by the average amount of scrap collected per pupil between Oct. 5 and Oct. 17.

MILLS AT CAPACITY

New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—The nationwide campaign or collection of scrap metal conducted by the country's newspapers was an important factor, steel men said today, in boosting the country's scheduled steel production rate this week to more than 100 per cent of capacity for the first time since our entry into the war.

The American Iron & Steel Institute estimated mills would operate this week at 100.2 per cent of capacity with an outturn of 1,714,100 tons of steel.

Soldier Sentenced to Hang for Raping 12-Year-Old Girl

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 12—(AP)—Pvt. Francis A. Lines of Detroit, convicted by a general court martial of raping a 12-year-old girl, is under sentence to hang for the crime, the first American soldier to be sentenced to death in continental United States since the start of the war.

The 27-year-old soldier was accused of threatening the girl with a knife and forcing her to accompany him to a railroad gondola car. Lines contended he thought the girl was about 16 and that she accompanied him willingly.

Praises Design of American Bombers

Lille Triumph Answer to Their Critics, Says Express

London, Oct. 12—(AP)—Friday's punishing raid on Lille by big American four-motored bombers—Fortresses and Liberators—in which at least 105 German fighter planes were destroyed or damaged was declared by the London Daily Express today to have been "vindication" of American aircraft engineering.

The Express, whose air correspondents have been most doubtful of the ability of the United States heavy bombers to carry out day raids, said in an editorial:

"There has been some criticism of American designers who, in producing the Fortresses, sacrificed bomb load capacity for gun power and armor."

"This (Lille) triumph is vindication of their policy and an answer to their critics."

Single Nazi raiders attacking a southeast coast town about noon today killed at least four persons and injured several others when bombs hit houses and shops.

German raiders made their first night attack on Britain since Sept. 26 last night, bombing scattered localities on the northeast coast and causing some casualties and damage.

There was no indication of any overnight activity by the RAF, which struck at Hannover yesterday in a series of daylight forays against targets in western Germany and occupied France.

The attack on Hannover was the 43rd on that city since the beginning of the war. The city, halfway between Germany's western frontier and Berlin, is an important railway and industrial center of about 500,000 population.

ASSAULT JAP BASE

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Oct. 12—(AP)—Allied medium bombers, following up two successive night assaults by Flying Fortresses on the Japanese base at Rabaul, New Britain, heavily damaged a 10,000-ton seaplane tender southeast of that island yesterday. Gen. MacArthur's headquarters announced today.

Two direct hits were scored on the vessel, which when last seen was motionless and apparently badly crippled, the announcement said.

Pilots participating in the attack reported that 12 planes were visible on the upper deck of the tender and observers believed the craft might have been engaged in carrying planes to outlying Japanese bases—perhaps in the Solomons or in New Guinea, where enemy troops have been suffering from an acute lack of air support.

No new developments were reported on the New Guinea land front, where allied forces now control the gap in the Owen Stanley mountains through which the Japanese retreated last week following the collapse of their drive on Port Moresby.

Allied advance elements were said to be maintaining contact with the Japanese but there were no reports of further fighting.

The War Today

vast responsibility for public morale, he also is one of the key-stones of the government at the comparatively youthful age of 41. I long had wanted to meet this man who for years has been so closely associated with Winston Churchill in work and friendship as to be regarded by some almost in the light of the prime minister's alter ego. I wasn't disappointed.

Words apt and pungent pour from him at the rate of 200 per minute like one of the tumbling streams that empty into the silver lakes of his native Ireland. And when sitting he pounds his knee by way of emphasis until your own leg aches in sympathy.

I called the minister's attention to the fact that members of some armed services advocate creation of official reporters to cover the news. These reporters would be professional fighting men and would replace war correspondents now sent into the field by newspapers.

"Balkens broad shoulders heaved and his fiery crest bristled. 'Impossible!' he exploded. 'It wouldn't be fair to the public. And no man who isn't a trained and experienced journalist is capable of producing the report to which the people are entitled.'"

"We believe in giving the press freedom of expression. During the war, and experienced journalist in the field even criticized our command. They raised the devil with us back home. But we let them go ahead. We think they have the right to express their views."

From Brendan Bracken I went into the office of the chief censor, whose door is always open. Thomson is especially well equipped for his difficult task because he not only has had wide experience with the press but being a naval officer, he understands the viewpoint of the traditionally conservative high command.

The chief censor is emphatic in support of the thesis that full access to the news is essential to maintain the morale of the people. He agreed, too, that the public could be so successfully as war correspondents.

There is a debate in Britain at the moment as to whether it is vital to the morale of the fighting forces, as well as of the public, that they be kept fully informed of all angles of the war.

I asked the admiral how he felt about it. "Decidedly it's essential," he replied.

Greatest Fistic Career of This Era Ended

FIGHTIN' DAYS ARE OVER SAYS SGT. JOE LOUIS

I'll Be Too Old to Fight When War Is Over, Joe Reckons

By SID FEDER
New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—Unless Joe Louis changes his mind—or Uncle Sam changes it for him—the greatest fistic career of this era is ended.

The quiet simple colored boy who skyrocketed out of an Alabama cotton patch into such fistic game that many experts rank him as the greatest fighter of all time, paused in Omaha yesterday to say casually that his "fightin' days are over."

He said it in the typical Louis way, without frills or drum beating; the same way in which he dropped all the glory and financial success that goes with the heavyweight championship to enlist in the United States Army as a private last January.

"By the time this war is over," he reckoned, "I'll be in my 30's, and that's too old for a fighter. I'm too old for it now."

"Y'know, I really don't care much any more about going back into the ring."

Of course, it would all change if the war department decides to let Joe—his sergeant now—out to toss his bombs again. But the Army already has turned thumbs down on one fight for the bomber — his eagerly-looked-for return go with Corporal Billy Conn.

"I'll do anything the Army asks," Joe said. "I'm in the Army now and they're taking care of my plans."

Came as Surprise
Naturally, Joe could change his mind. He wouldn't be the first champion who couldn't get the "rosin out of his blood." But as matters stand now, the bomber, at 28, is giving up a reign that already has netted purses of more than $2,000,000 and has broken all records for successful defenses of the fight game's most prized bauble. He has turned back 21 challenges since he won the crown from old rough-and-ready Jim Braddock back in 1937, and no champ ever came within shouting distance of that mark.

Louis' statement, which he made to Associated Press staff reporter David Kaufman after marching with the Fort Riley (Kansas) precision drill team in an exhibition, left the fight world gasping in astonishment.

Although it was known for some three years that the ring had lost its zest for him—that he was no longer a "hungry" fighter—his statement came as a complete surprise, even to his closest associates—men like Promoter Mike Jacobs, who has put on every Louis fight since he first hit the "big apple" back in 1935, and to John Roxborough, who with Julian Black, piloted him out of the amateurs, through the $50-a-bout preliminary days and into the million-dollar-a-gate stakes.

"Joe may think he's through with fighting," said Abe J. Greene, president of the National Boxing Association, "but fighting will never be through with Joe."

GUARDS WINNING BALL GAMES IN BIG TEN TILTS

Such Queer Going Ons Highlight Western Conference Play

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Some queer things are going on in the Western Conference. Guards—the players whose names you don't know—are winning ball games.

A couple of them you'll remember, though. Take Alex Agase, Illinois' aggressive Assyrian. He became bored bumping shoulders and heads in the line and went after some glory.

He was the bottom man in an end zone dogpile, coming up with the ball from a mad scramble for a touchdown. He was the man who later grabbed the ball from William Daley and lumbered 35 yards for another touchdown.

Alexander truly was the hero when Minnesota crumbled into a 20 to 13 defeat, its first in 13 conference games.

A week ago, you'll remember, another guard, benchmarker Alan Pick, kicked a field goal to give Northwestern a 3-0 verdict over Texas. Pick's kick against Purdue last week didn't have much of a chance, for Barry French, a tackle, slapped the ball aside, thus saving a 7 to 6 victory for the Boilermakers.

French will be remembered for a long time. Now that you agree anything can happen in this season of miracles, you'll be thinking twice before placing that nickel bet on what's coming up this Saturday.

No Highly Favored Teams
Northwestern trots up to Michigan for a game that marks the start of a three-week struggle in which the championship contenders all have a go at each other—a four-game round robin featuring the Wildcats, Wolverines, Gophers and Ohio State Buckeyes.

In this elite company, only Paul Brown's Bucks are undefeated, their latest success being a 28 to 12 conquest of Southern California. Michigan passed from the unbeaten class when the Iowa Seahawks surged to a 26 to 14 triumph, their fourth in a row. Northwestern and Minnesota are on their victim list, too.

In the meantime, Wisconsin remained unbeaten by crossing Missouri's 17 to 9.

There's no such thing as a "highly favored" team any more. Besides the Northwestern, Michigan feature this Saturday, Purdue goes to Ohio State and Illinois rides into Iowa for conference warfare. Wisconsin puts its marvel, Elroy Hirsch, against the Great Lakes Bluejackets in Chicago's Soldier Field.

The Gophers and Bill Daley (who got off an 80 yard touchdown dash against the Illini) step to Nebraska and Indiana travels to Pittsburgh.

The Bluejackets edged through Pitt 7 to last week, while the Hoosiers beat Nebraska 12 to 0 and Iowa smashed Camp Grant 33 to 16.

Spotlighting the intersection picture is the Seahawks game at Notre Dame, where Angelo Bertelli whipped four touchdown passes for a 27 to 0 win over Stanford. It will be the third time Lieut. Col. Bernie Bierman has sent a team against the Irish. His Gophers lost in 1937 and 1938. Marquette is at Michigan State for another major midland engagement.

New York, Oct. 12.—Mike Getto says that in 14 years of coaching he has never seen a football team with better spirit than that of his professional Brooklyn Dodgers.

New President Elected for Journalism School
Champaign, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—Paul McMichael of Urbana is the new president of the Illinois School of Journalism Association.

Directors elected Saturday included Robert R. Hardaker of Shelbyville; Betty D. Wolcott of Collinsville; and Lieut. James W. Ingram of Vandalia.

In connection with the $25,000 limitation on salaries, a White House secretary said that the president's salary will undoubtedly be adjusted to conform with the limitation he ordered enforced. When the question of such a limitation was raised in congress Mrs. Roosevelt proposed that it be invoked against all salaries except the chief executive's.

Illinois Upsets Minnesota

One of the big moments in Illinois' 20-13 upset of Minnesota at Champaign, Paul Mitchell, Gopher tackle, blocking point after touchdown attempt of Illinois' Jim McCarthy in second quarter. The game was Minnesota's first conference defeat since 1939.

GOPHERS' DALEY GETS FAST START AS BACK-OF-THE-YEAR

By BURTON BENJAMIN
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

Minneapolis, Oct. 12—The back-of-the-year (you with us, Mr. Sinkwich?) once more glitters in the golden jersey of Minnesota. Power-Laden Bill Daley, a 6-foot 2-inch, 205-pound Dynamo, is the Gophers' current edition of Pug Lund, Andy Uram, Harold Van Every, George Franck and Bruce Smith.

Despite his brawn, Daley has the blinding speed of a sprinter. So fast is the 23-year-old Melrose, Minn., senior that Dr. George Hauser saw fit to transfer him to halfback after two pulverizing years at the fullback slot.

Pre-season roundups had listed Daley as the successor to such Gopher immortals as Herb Joesting, Bronko Nagurski, Stan Kostka and Sheldon Beise. He had led the team in yardage gained last season with 726 yards in 157 attempts for an average of 4.61. He was top scorer with nine touchdowns. As a sophomore he averaged 7.47 in 28 tries.

Almost Beat Seahawks
Daley took the switch in stride. He picked up the delicate nuances that a tailback requires and a bulging fullback does not. Bawling changes of pace, side-steps and feints became part of his repertoire.

Against the Iowa Seahawks, coached by Lieut.-Col. Bernie Bierman, his former tutor, Daley almost salvaged a victory single-handed. He rammed 158 yards in 17 attempts, for 9.2 yards per carry, against a line that is a typical Bierman dyke. In the first quarter he sailed 54 yards for a touchdown on a double lateral.

One point in arrears with a minute and 19 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, Daley faded on his own 40 to pass. Apparently trapped with no receivers open, he adagiod through the entire Seahawk team for what seemed to be a touchdown.

The officials ruled that Dick Fisher, former Ohio State great, had butted Daley out-of-bounds on the one yard line. Green Vic Kulbitski nervously fumbled on the first play and the Gophers were beaten.

Daley scored four times in his first two games, gained 291 yards, for a nine plus average per play. The opposition—Pittsburgh, which beat Southern Methodist, and the Iowa Cadets—certainly was no soft touch.

Versatile Daley is a murderous blocker, works at any backfield post. He has typical Gopher ruggedness, played 413 bruising minutes last season against such love-lies as Washington, Illinois, Pittsburgh, Michigan, Northwestern, Nebraska, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Fits Into System
Minnesota, under Bierman or Hauser, does not indulge in such football refinements as hip-dipper and sleight-of-hand. The Gophers will knock 'em over and their backs have the speed to give plays split-second precision.

Their fullbacks can powder a line, and their tailbacks can sprint through a hole. But it is not a drab system dependent on brute force. Shake a Gopher loose and he can be a cute item in the open field.

In Mainspring Bill Daley, who combines power and speed with deception and savvy, Minnesota has a worthy successor to its alumni of football immortals.

SCRAP COLLECTION
The Southern Conference again has turned down the proposal that freshmen be allowed to play varsity football, but we'll bet it wasn't the coaches who did it. South Carolina's Rex Enright took a bunch along for last Saturday's non-conference game with West Virginia and Jim Tatum of North Carolina wanted to do the same for the Fordham game but couldn't get permission from his college. The National hockey league is taking plenty of chances on transportation troubles with its new schedule, calling for frequent appearances of teams in Montreal and Toronto Saturday nights and in Boston, New York or Detroit on Sunday. Only 21 clubs registered for the Sacramento, Calif., winter baseball league this year as compared to 4 last season. Bill Keefe of the New Orleans Times Picayune points out that the big problems in football from now on will be training and coaches—railroad training and day coaches.

POSTPONED PAYOFF
When Chief Bender, the old Athletics' pitcher, made his pro baseball debut in Dillsworth, Pa., 41 years ago he was promised $5 for his day's work. The locals passed the hat and dumped the coins in Bender's hands, and when he counted the pennies and nickels the sum was $1.80 short. That's the way it stood until a couple of weeks ago. Then William Sheffer read about the occasion in a Philadelphia paper, and to clear his home town's reputation he took up another collection to pay off the Chief.

the army war show have organized a football team to fill their spare time (if any) and would like to scrimmage Bernie Bierman's navy cadets when they're in that vicinity. Some of the would-be gridders are Lieut. Art Bowersox from Johns Hopkins, Lieut. Joe Rothe of Texas Aggies and Lieut. Wesley Williams of West Texas State. Pvt. "It would have been too confusing trying to mix fighting with the World Series," he writes. "And both of them got promotions in rank and neither one got hurt."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Carl Bell, Fort Smith (Ark.) Southwest American: "In any case Coach Homer Norton still is looking for an alibi for the Texas Aggies' loss to Louisiana State, he might find some connection in the facts that the game was played at night and that LSU's star back was Al Dark."

Three Players Share College Scoring Lead

New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—Three players, including All-America Frankie Sinkwich of Georgia, share the lead among the nation's football scorers as the season nears its halfway point.

Others of the top-ranking trio are Lee Tevis of Washington University at St. Louis and Ralph La Pointe of Vermont. Each has scored 42 points.

The performance of La Pointe outranks those of the other two, however, since he has appeared in only three games while the others have played four each.

Andy Victory of the citadel and Bob Stauber of Missouri are only three points behind the leaders with 39 each.

MILLIKIN AFTER 2nd CONFERENCE VICTORY IN ROW

Last Season's Champs Face Knox in Homecoming Game Sat.

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Millikin University goes after its second straight Illinois College Conference victory Saturday in a homecoming game with Knox.

The 1941 undefeated and untied College Conference champion appears headed for another great season under C. E. "Fuzzy" Sutherland, a player on Millikin's previously "perfect" team in 1920. Although only four starters remain from the 1941 eleven, one of whom is Captain Virgil Wagner, star back who scored in every game, Millikin has defeated Carroll 7 to 0 and Monmouth 14 to 6 thus far this season. The victory over Monmouth a week ago Saturday was its first conference engagement of the season.

Sutherland, assistant coach from 1924 to 1927 and athletic director since 1938, took over the head coaching job at Millikin when Marshall Wells and Ed Roy, coach and assistant last year, became naval lieutenants at the Iowa City preflight school.

Knox will enter the game with a 2 to 0 victory over Augustana in conference competition. Knox licked Grinnell 13 to 7 last week. Another college conference game Saturday sends Illinois college to Augustana for homecoming. Augustana defeated Monmouth 21 to 0 in a league encounter last week while Illinois college smashed Carthage 14 to 0 to remain undefeated for the season.

Two conference games also are scheduled in the IAC circuit, Eastern Teachers going to State Normal Saturday for the first league date for both schools and Southern Teachers opening its season at Western State.

Eastern is the only IAC school that has played as many as four games thus far, its record being two wins and two defeats. Eastern beat Central Indiana 7 to 0 last week.

Southern has been out of action for two weeks since losing its opening game to Cape Girardeau 26 to 7. Western and Northern battled to a 14-14 stalemate last week in an IAC engagement.

PASSES PROVE A POTENT WEAPON IN PRO LEAGUE

Seventeen of 28 Touchdowns Made Via the Aerial Route

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—The National football league has found that the shortest distance to the promised land is as the crow flies—or through the air.

Of 28 touchdowns made by the 10 pro teams yesterday, 17 mushroomed from passes. And virtually all others were set up by the same method.

After the sky had been cleared of leather, those national champions, the Chicago Bears, remained the only undefeated team in the league. This came about when they swished by their arch city rivals, the Cardinals, 41 to 14—the biggest scoring outburst of the day which left George Halas' T men their 8th straight win of the season, three in league play; their 16th in succession spanning back to 1941 and their 31st victory in 32 games.

The Bears also set a record for going backward. Twelve penalties cost them 150 yards, breaking their own league record of 12 for 123 against the Green Bay Packers on Dec. 14, 1941.

The unbeaten Brooklyn Dodgers were nailed 7 to 0 by the Pittsburgh Steelers, whose rookie Bill Dudley, the former Virginia scoring demon, darted 31, 20 and ultimately seven yards for the touchdown.

Pittsburgh and Detroit were the only teams in the league not to score at least once via the air.

The Washington Redskins crushed the Cleveland Rams 33 to 14 with Slingshot Sammy Baugh spearing Dick Todd, Wilbur Moore and Bob McChesney for three of the markers. The Rams collected their two on flips by Parker Hall in the last 10 months while Indian Jack Jacobs' arm failed. The Redskins go to Brooklyn this Sunday.

In the Bears' victory, Sid Luckman passed 40 yards to Hampton Pool, and Chuckin' Charley O'Rourke, who relieved him at quarterback, featured in 67-and-50-yard pass-and-run plays for touchdowns to Ray McLean and Pool, respectively. In the meantime McLean made the longest run of the day, 89 yards on a punt return for another tally and Bulldog Turner stole a pass for a 40 yard run for another. Gary Famiglietti made the sixth.

Sunday the Bears entertain New York, whose Tuffy Leemans tossed three touchdowns and set up another with a 26-yard pitch as the Giants whipped Philadelphia 35 to 17.

Cecil Isabella's aerials accounted for three touchdowns, two of them going to Don Hutson, and Tony Canadeo threw another to carry the Packers over Detroit 33 to 7.

Other Sunday games send the Cardinals to Detroit, Cleveland to Green Bay and Pittsburgh to Philadelphia.

Try Ration Coupon Banking Experiment in New York State

If Successful, System Will Be Applied Nationally

Washington (World Wide) — Handling thousands of those little sugar rationing coupons is no joke.

And, with rationing spreading to more and more items, merchants are looking hopefully toward the ration coupon banking experiment scheduled for the Albany-Schenectady-Troy area of New York state. If it works there, it'll be applied nationally, the OPWA says.

This plan, tried out successfully in England, permits businessmen to open bank accounts in which they deposit ration coupons received from their customers.

Then, when they need the coupons to replenish their stocks, they give their suppliers checks for certain amounts of coupons instead of handing over the actual tickets. The suppliers deposit the checks to their credit, and they're cleared back to the banks on which they're drawn.

The department of commerce recently estimated that in the first four months of sugar rationing in this country probably one billion coupons made the rounds from the individual consumer to the OPA.

Each sugar coupon thus is transferred at least four times—to retailer, to wholesaler, to refinery, to OPA—and at each stage, the commerce department pointed out, there's possibility of loss, theft, forgery and disputes.

Point System
The new ration books will be made so they're suitable for the "point" system of rationing.

And that was the point at which Britain ran head-on into terrific burdens in the mere phy-

Good Shot

Chewelah, Wash., Oct. 12—(AP)—For 15 years W. B. Carter had been promising his wife venison, but what with chores and all, he just never found time to kill a deer.

So Mrs. Carter looked out the farmhouse window and saw a big buck nibbling in her garden. She reached for the Carter rifle.

extended to food and other items.

All transactions involving more than 75 coupons must be handled through this system.

The U. S. department of commerce has reported a suggestion that the banking plan could be adapted to control of raw materials.

Allocations of aluminum, for example, could take the form of an "aluminum deposit account" established to the credit of the manufacturer, and he could write checks on it to accompany his orders.

Hoopeston Man Is Awarded Silver Star

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Oct. 12—(AP)—Second Lieut. William D. Sells, Hoopeston, Ill., was one of 32 army officers awarded the Silver Star for "gallantry in action" by Maj. Gen. George C. Kenney, commander of allied air forces in the southwest Pacific, today.

Sells was a member of a flight of P-40's which intercepted a large formation of Japanese bombers over Darwin on March 23. In the face of heavy cannon and machinegun fire he attacked the formation repeatedly, shooting down one bomber and damaging several others. He returned to his base only when his ammunition was exhausted.

Rent Freezing for 97 Areas Announced

Included among the districts were Quincy, Illinois-Missouri, Adams county, Illinois; Lewis and Marion counties, Missouri.

Strike Paralyzes Production in Alton Plant Second Time

Alton, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—Important war production at the Western Cartridge Company's plant was paralyzed by a strike today, the second within a month.

Members of the AFL moulders union who work in the castings and brass mill shops walked out Saturday, charging company officials had refused to meet with the union's grievance committee.

Pickets were thrown about the huge war production plant and company officials said last night the shutdown was virtually 100 per cent.

Disruption of production was not felt fully until the day shift was due to report today (8:00 a. m., Central War Time) as the casting and mill shops are the only two departments normally operating on Sunday.

Fred Olds, AFL organizer, said William Green, president of the AFL, had authorized him to say the strike was unsanctioned. Olds added, however, that the company "fomented the walkout by refusing to meet with the grievance committee."

Company officials sent a telegram to national labor relations board at Washington charging "employees who wish to work are being coerced and intimidated with threats of violence."

A company spokesman said in a statement:

"The AFL committee demanded to discuss matters of immediate recognition and collective bargaining contracts under such recognition, refusing to tell the company what the unsettled points are until after such recognition should be granted."

Members of the AFL chemical workers union walked out several weeks ago, tying up production four days. They demanded reinstatement of Francis Bunzy, local union president who had been discharged, wage increases averaging 29 cents an hour, and an election to determine the bargaining agent for the company's employees.

The chemical workers are not involved in the present strike, Olds said.

NATION CAN LIVE WITHOUT UNIONS, ADMIRAL WARNS

"Get in and Pitch," He Tells Labor

Toronto, Ont.—Rear Adm. Ben Morell, chief of the United States navy's bureau of yards and docks, told American labor leaders that although the people can live without labor unions and "they will damn well live without them here if all of us don't get in there and pitch."

In an address before the building and construction trades department of the American Federation of Labor, the United States naval officer said he felt working people had the biggest stake in the war. Nevertheless, he said, labor's wartime record "in many instances does not make the best reading."

As to the war itself, "we are losing it now," the admiral declared.

He said he was aware some employers were unscrupulous enough to provoke a strike for selfish purposes, but pleaded with labor to "refuse to be incited."

Nazis Without Unions
"Whenever you strike," he added, "whenever you feel like striking, just stop and consider. 'Whom will I harm?' You will certainly not hurt the managers of the business, whose pay goes on just the same. When you strike you hurt, first and most important, the boy on the firing line, who needs the bullets you are making, and, second, yourselves."

Asserting that labor organizations would lose public support if they condoned any work stoppages, the admiral said: "Your answer may be, 'They can't live without us.' They are living without unions in Germany, and in Italy, and in Japan, and they seem to be doing right well—at least for the moment."

16-Year-Old Arrested After Robbery Attempt

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—A diminutive 16-year old, barely tall enough to reach the ticket window, was arrested yesterday on charges of assault with intent to kill after a $70 robbery at the Tivoli theater.

The youth, Thomas Dodd, told Police Chief Fred Hess, he wanted money to visit his father in Chicago.

Hess said that young Dodd went to the ticket cage, pointed a gun at Miss Gloria White, the cashier, and demanded money. She gave him $70. As Dodd turned to go, he was felled with a flying tackle by Bernard Weiler, 23, assistant manager. In the scuffle, Weiler received a bullet in the arm.

Secretary Urges Farmers to Store Their Soybeans

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—Farmers are urged to store soybeans on farms wherever possible because there is a shortage of facilities for transporting, storing and crushing this year's record crop.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard made this known Saturday, asserting his office had received many reports of rail and truck congestions at country points. He added that continued piling up of shipments could result in serious loss.

New Head Elected for Press Association

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—George M. Smith of the Wheaton Daily Journal today heads the Illinois Press Association.

Other officers chosen at a meeting Saturday were: Joseph Campbell, Nashville Journal, first vice president; Roy Clippinger, Carmi Democrat-Tribune, second vice president; J. L. McLaren, Jerseyville Democrat-News, third vice president; and Richard Finfgeld, Henry News-Republican, treasurer.

Rin Tin Tin, Famous Movie Dog Wounded

Hollywood, Oct. 12—(AP)—Rin Tin Tin III, grandson of the famous movie dog, is home on a three-day furlough from his army station in the desert—recovering from wounds suffered in line of duty.

He had a brush with a night prowler near the Army camp.

The prowler was a porcupine.

People's Peace at End of War McKeough Says

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—A "people's peace" at the victorious end of the war was predicted by Raymond S. McKeough, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, at a labor rally yesterday.

"Voluntarily organized workers gave up their hard won right to strike, in order that production might low evenly and abundantly," he said.

"It seems to me wholly natural that labor has relegated to itself a conspicuous place in the forefront of the struggle against the forces of darkness. Since time immemorial labor has been fighting for freedom."
